[Al]

(laughs) You know sitting here next to you now
it's as if I was meeting you for the very first time

[Shirley]

This time it's through between us two, I'm through with you

[Al]

Oh come on you don't mean that

[Shirley]

I really do

[Al]

But baby you got to believe me

[Shirley]

Believe in you, oh if I could, I really would

[Al]

Give it a try

[Shirley]

But it's no good

[Al]

Hey I promise you things will be different now

[Shirley]

You promised me, promised forever

And all I've got are souvenirs to remember

[Al]

Ah but baby you are the beginning of my day

The wind that blows my cares away

[Shirley]

I know, you've got a way with words

[Al]

Well if you say so

[Shirley]

Yes you have and just as soon as my back is turned

You'll be off without a care in the world

Why should I care even when you're not here?

I feel so good, I've got my souvenirs

Remember, Remember, Remember

[Al]

Oh I'm here

[Shirley]

Remember I'll always remember

[Al]

Just you

[Shirley]

Those moments so tender so tender

September, October, November, December

Remember the days that we had, the way that we were

[Al]

The way you looked that night, I mean

How could you blame me for giving you the eye ?

[Shirley]

I caught your glance, I took the chance, a real romance

[Al]

Romancing and dancing, that's me

[Shirley]

I took the chance

[Al]

Do you remember what I said to you?

[Shirley]

A whispered word, something I heard but so absurd

[Al]

Where have you been all my life?

[Shirley]

You and your words

[Al]

But let's not forget the good times

[Shirley]

The times we had were so exciting

And the way you spoke to me was so inviting

[Al]

Oh honey you are like a flower that'll never wilt

A painting that'll never fade

[Shirley]

I know, you've got a way with words

[Al]

And if you didn't exist I'd invent you

[Shirley]

Sure you would, but just as soon as my back is turned

You'll be off without a care in the world

Why should I care even when you're not here?

I feel so good, I've got my souvenirs

Remember, Remember, Remember

[Al]

You and me

[Shirley]

Remember I'll always remember
[AI]
Just the two of us
[Shirley]
Those moments so tender so tender
September, October, November, December
Remember the days that we had, the way that we were

Remember, Remember, Remember
[AI]
I am never going to forget
[Shirley]
Remember I'll always remember
[AI]
Oh baby, baby
[Shirley]
Those moments so tender so tender
September, October, November, December
Remember the days that we had, the way that we were.
