"Driving Wheel"

My baby don't have to work
She don't have to rob or steal
My baby don't have to work
She don't have to rob or steal, Lord
I'll give her everything she needs
I'm her driving wheel
Oh, you don't hear me

She left me this morning
She said she'd be back soon
She left me here early this morning
She said she'd be back soon
Yeah, she would be back early friday mornin'
Or late, late, late Saturday afternoon

Wo, I sent baby a letter
Don't want nobody else to break the seal
Wo, I sent baby a letter
Don't want nobody else to break the seal
I want the whole world to know
That I am my baby's driving wheel
Tell everybody, I'm a driving wheel
