You get up early in the morning, just to see her rise,
She's walking around the house, yeah, in a complete disguise.

I don't know just how to tell you, just how she changed so fast.

But she's the prettiest thing, yeah, in my life at last.

I get mad when I see you with my baby, I can't stand to see you in my baby's place.

Hey, I'm movin' with it. All the guys wanna dance with my sweet little sixteen.

I can't believe the way you hold me, I can't believe the way you console me.

All the guys wanna dance with my sweet little sixteen.

All the fellows just wanna touch her and hold her hand real tight. Cause she's the prettiest thing, yeah, out here tonight.

Tell you one thing, if the dancing gets good to you, way down in your soul, you try to move your body, you might lose control.

Hey, let me tell you one thing, Hey.

I don't believe the way you hold me, the way you console me.

All the guys wanna dance with my sweet little sixteen.

Hey, hey, all right.

Tell you what I'll do... let you talk with her,

Tell you what I'll do... I'll let you walk with her, I believe I'll let you sing with her.

I don't want you holding her, trying to console her.
