"Throw The Roses"

I've been thinkin about all the places that I've been.
And all the heartache that I've been through.
When the same thing about all these things.
It's not so easy without you.
Your love was everything to me.
When you were giving me roses.
All my friends would say don't give it up.
He'll come back in time.
But I really know it's over.
And my heart just can't believe you wont be around her to love and hold me.

CHORUS:

Throw the roses on me.
Throw them on me now.
Throw the roses on me.
Bury me now.
I need the roses.
Come on and bury me now.
I need the roses.

I believed in you.
You said you wouldn't be gone.
You took the best of me.
Left me for another.
You went and left me all alone.

CHORUS

You gave me a dozen.
You gave me oh yes now.
The roses don't mean a thing to me, that wanted to use to gather up the pain, that's just by you.
