You'll always be my pretty dancer
Spinning trails of fairy dust
Making moves like nobody else
On your own
If anybody needs a reason it's right here

Giving me shockwaves
Those magical mistakes
Sending shockwaves through my atmosphere
If anybody needs a reason it's right here

If those eyelids were the shutter to my camera
Maybe I would see the world in different light
You wear that smile like nobody else
On your own
If anybody needs a reason it's right here

Giving me shockwaves
Those magical mistakes
Sending shockwaves through my atmosphere
If anybody needs a reason it's right here

Stay gold
Keep your balance on the tightrope
Chasing after
My pretty dancer

Giving me shockwaves
Those magical mistakes
Sending shockwaves through my atmosphere
If anybody needs a reason it's right here

Giving me shockwaves
Those magical mistakes
Sending shockwaves through my atmosphere
If anybody needs a reason it's right here
