She said, "I don't know which planet you're from
It seems you couldn't have gotten it more wrong"
She's like a fire burning in the snow
I'm melting into her arms
I can't wait for every single second to countdown

Summer sun
Don't leave us now that it's only just begun
Pin me down
I can't move
I am blinded when I look at you
Oh

There would be no light if there were no cracks
No perfection if you turn the clocks back
Close your eyes and drift away with me
Make my body weak
I can't wait for every single second to countdown

Summer sun
Don't leave us now that it's only just begun
Pin me down
I can't move
I am blinded when I look at you
Oh

Oh
Summer sun
Don't leave us now that it's only just begun
Pin me down
I can't move
I am blinded when I look at you
Oh
