Do you know what you're fighting for
Well let's fight
Let's fight

Do you know what we're asking for
'Cause I don't sometimes

I just wanna kick off at something
Go to town and then make a scene
We're not sure what were fighting for but we'll fight

And just wanna give you something that I haven't got
I'm a walking advertisement of both light and dark
I'm not making any sense
I'm not making any sense
I mess up but don't forget that this is what I sound like
This is what I sound like
Just to remind myself that this is what I sound like

I was lost in a hotel bar
I was lost
I was lost
Is someone out there just laughing at us
'Cause it seems that way

Stop at nothing to get what we want
Too young to realize ee're all the same
I was lost in a hotel bar
I was lost

And just wanna give you something that I haven't got
I'm a walking advertisement of both light and dark
I'm not making any sense
I'm not making any sense
I mess up but don't forget that this is what I sound like
This is what I sound like
Just to remind myself that this is what I sound like
