People rushing left to right
There's pretty faces left to right
I'm just frozen
Staring into space

Faster than the speed of light
I'm holding on
I'm holding tight 'cause stars are gonna crash into this place

And it's caught wide screen so we don't miss a thing
Now I'm standing clear 'cause all I waited for is

Closing in
We've still got 24 hours

We're closing in
We've still got 24 hours

This is more than daily bread
It's three degrees
It's something else
And you just take it all into your stride

Couldn't be an accident 'cause I can't see no ambulance
I know that we will work it out this time

And its' caught wide screen so we don't miss a thing
Now I'm standing clear 'cause all I waited for is

Closing in
We've still got 24 hours

We're closing in
We've still got 24 hours

Closing in
We've still got 24 hours

And now we're closing in

We've still got 24 hours

It's not over

It's not over

We've still got 24 hours

It's not over

It's not over yet

We've still got 24 hours
