Just you take your time
Just you take your time

Do you remember when we used to take our time?
You'd write me a letter baby and I'd wait for you all night
Now I see everyone rushin' around includin' you and I
I wanna take a little time just to fall in love again

~Cause they're tellin' me
Just you take your time
No hurry, baby
Just you take your time

When I think about yesterday, everythin' was easy, everythin' was okay
Now, everythin' is goin' fast, you're the best thing I ever had
Oh and losin' you, oh make me, make me
That would make me feel so bad, hey, hey

Would you help me say?
Just you take your time
Just you take your time

Seein' y'all all can take it slow
I'm inclined to agree
'Cuz ain't nobody livin'
Can try to hurry me

Oh, just you take your time
Just you take your time
Woman

Just you take your time
No need to hurry, baby
Just you take your time
I don't want you runnin' away baby

Just you take your time
There's no rush in it, baby

Just you
All the time in the world for you baby
