Away all boats I'm sending
All my ships of dreams
To bring the love
I long to hold

They sail the sea
Of things that used to be
And gently you return to me
On waves of memories

When I'm alone and lonely
In the night again
I think of you
I dim the light and then

I set my ships of
Fancy free to roam
Away all boats
A happy voyage home

When I'm alone and lonely
In the night again
I think of you
I dim the light and then

I set my ships of
Fancy free to roam
Away all boats
A happy voyage home
