(Mark Knopfler)

Now it's been something seeing you again

In this time we've had to spend

You've been so good to be around

I thank you for that special thrill

Keep me going on until

The next time I'm in town

Though I won't be back here for a while

Or hear your laughter, see you smile

And I'll remember what went down

I can't tell you how or when

But I'll be seeing you again

The next time I'm in town

Now the places and the faces range

'Cross the bridge of time and change

Once again I'm homeward bound

There's one thing I promise you

And that's another rendezvous

The next time I'm in town

Now it's been something seeing you again

And in this time we've had to spend

You've been so good to be around

And I thank you for that special thrill

Keep me goin' on until

The next time I'm in town

It's been something seeing you again

And in this time we've had to spend

You've been so good to be around

And I thank you for that special thrill

Keep me goin' on until

The next time I'm in town

It's been something seeing you again

And in this time we've had to spend

You've been so good to be around

I thank you for that special thrill

Keep me goin' on until

The next time I'm in town

'Til the next time I'm in town

'Til the next time I'm in town
