My eyes were ignited by your beauty
And my lips were excited to say
What my heart was shouting out so deep inside me
Well that was then, here's how they'd say it today

You're fucking Beautiful and when I kiss your lips I hear those fucking angels sing a hymn to you're grace
You're fucking beautiful and when I look into you're eyes
Well I see everything on your whole fucking face

If I were a wise man I'd have the words I'd have the wit
At last I am no wise man, in fact I don't know shit Except you're fucking beautiful and when I hold
You close it feels like fucking paradise come true

And with your charms here in my arms I'd be Content my fucking life with fucking you

Fucking beautiful, fucking wonderful, fucking paradise
You're fucking beautiful, I hear fucking angels sing
My hearts gonna fucking ache, so give me a fucking break
And be my fucking turtle dove

For its fuck, fuck, fuck, fuck, fuck, fuck, fuck, fuck, fuck, fuck, fuck
Fucking Love.
