"8 Month's Of Hell"

I remember how you looked that day and thought we would be together until we were both old & gray but, after 7 years of happiness & 8 month's of hell 7 years of loving you

My perfect world fell

2 blessings came, a baby girl for you and for me a baby boy

but after 7 years of happiness & 8 months of hell 7years of loving you
my perfect world fell

Then your cheating game, with all of the mysterious names said you were working late, but was out on a date,

so after 7 years of happiness & 8 months of hell 7 years of loving you
you threw it to hell
