I woke up with her in my arms this morning
And God knows I love her over all
She whispered she loved me your memory appeared
Ain't your memory got no pride at all

You were here we loved now you're gone
So why can't you let bygones be bygones and stay
gone
You always find the wrong time to come around and call
Ain't your memory got no pride at all

(Instrumental)

Tonight I lay holding her sweet body
And the good familiar feeling I recall
She whispered she loved me your memory appeared
Ain't your memory got no pride at all

You were here we loved now you're gone
So why can't you let bygones be bygones and stay
gone
You always find the wrong time to come around and
call
Ain't your memory got no pride at all

Ain't your memory got no pride at all
