The girl's wouldn't look anything like they do
Can't imagine my life without dresses and shoes
Or never taking a sunset from a front porch swing
Or make any sense of the pleasure love brings
I'd been alone for sure
Had it not been you

I wouldn't reach for your arms
When my dreams don't come true
Never sit holding hands
On a crowded church pew
I wouldn't smile when my fingers run through your hair
Or laugh when we race to the top of the stairs
I'd get old for sure
Had it not been you

You know there are times
That I can't wait to pick up the phone
When you're callin'
And the three little voices
That always chime in right along

When we're talkin'

Oh I never would see through eyes of truth
And my heart would have overlooked a view that some just talk of and never find
In a lifetime

It's hard to describe in just words how I feel when I hold stand beside you
But I make it known
It's just time that I kill
When I'm alone and without you
I will love all through the night
If you love me
As long as I wake up each morning
I'll know I'm the only one around

For a lifetime

I'd never have taken in a sunset from the front porch swing

Or make any sense of the pleasure love brings

I'd been alone for sure

Had it not been you
