(Billy F. Gibbons)

Rain fell this mornin',
Made me feel so bad
On account of my baby
Walked off with another man.
Like takin' eyesight from the blind man
And money from the poor
That woman took my lovin'
And walked on out that door
And it sure got cold after the rain fell
Not from the sky, from my eye

--- Instrumental ---

Somebody tell me
Makes a man feel this way
Like a river without water,
Like night without day
And it sure got cold after the rain fell
Not from the sky, from my eye

--- Instrumental ---

Started early in the mornin'
The rain began to fall
With thunder bolts and lightning
The wind begins to call
Your worry's superficial
'Cause you slept on through the night
Stormy weather keeps you wond'rin'
If ev'rything's all right
And it sure got cold after the rain fell
Not from the sky, but from my eye
Not from the sky, Lord, from my eye

--- Instrumental ---

After the rain fell

It sure got cold after the rain fell

Sure got cold after the rain fell

After the rain fell

It sure got cold...
