First time I felt it
Think I was five years old
I was scared had a nightmare
Momma was there for me to hold
Daddy he was different
He never said it much
But I heard him loud and clear
When he brought home that ball and glove
And it took on a brand new meaning
I wasn't just a boy no more and she moved in next door

Where you from Whats your name?
Wanna go to my game
Got the keys to my dad's old truck
Turned the radio on Still remember the song
We held hands and there it was
Love

pages kept on turning
There I was with someone else
For the first time in my lifetime
I wasn't living for myself
I knew I wasn't falling anywhere I'd fell before
And it took on a brand new meaning
It was strong and it was true
Knew what I had to do

Found a ring
Hit my knees
Couldn't talk couldn't breath
My heart had me all choked up
Said I do then we cried
Wedding bells waved goodbye
The whole church knew it was
Love

And it took on a brand new meaning
When the doctor said its time to watch your miracle arrive

Thank the Lord
Cut the cord
Take her home
Help her grow
And complete the circle of..
Love..
Love..

That's the circle of Love.
