Trying not to love you, failing in every way
With you around I keep losing ground day by day
Trying to be fair both to me and to you
Trying not to love you, is hard to do.

But, I guess there's no use hiding
What everybody knows
'Cause to other eyes there's no disguise
For the love that shows
So if I'm not being clear
I'll explain these words to you
Trying not to love you is hard to do.

--- Instrumental ---

Well, I guess there's no use hiding
What everybody knows
'Cause to other eyes there's no disguise
For the love that shows
So if I'm not being clear, baby
I'll explain these words to you
Trying not to love you is hard to do.

Trying not to love you is so hard to do...
