Verse 1:

You might like rainbow colors on the canvas
Maybe black and white with shades of gray
Pen and ink or watercolors, evn photographs
Or a piece of sculpture made from stone or clay

Chorus:

Art is for your heart (background vocals:
michaelangelo)
Won't you look a little closer (gogan)
Something good for everyone (monet)
Who takes the time to see (davinci)

It's music for your eyes (picasso)
It lets you feel so many things (van gogh)
And makes the world a happier place to be

Verse 2:

Do you wonder just how blue is blue boy
Kermit: maybe he'd be happier in green
You know the classic picture of the farmer and his wife
Piggy: it just might be more beautiful if I were in the scene

(repeat chorus)
