Will you understand Will you understand

Dead on a Wednesday morning
Trying to make sense of it all
Shall I go round to your place?
Shall I just give you a call?
I'm running across the ceiling
Climbing up the wall
Funny how I never knew
That I could ever fall

But I know it's late
And I know that I'm wrong
Won't you hear me now
'Cos I'm coming on strong

But I know it's late
And it won't take long
Won't you hear me now
Together we belong

When will you understand
It's out of my hands
I can't stop loving you
Oh hear me now

When you see what I am
And understand
That I'm a fool for you
Fool for you
I am

Will you understand

Ran from here yesterday
Left it all behind
Got to your gate feeling bad
Crazy in my mind
Found your key, pushed the door
Moved a little inside
Looked around saw your room

But you I didn't find

But I know it's late
And I know that I'm wrong
Won't you hear me now
'Cos I'm coming on strong

But I know it's late
And it won't take long
Won't you hear me now
Together we belong

When will you understand
It's out of my hands
Oh hear me now

When you see what I am
And understand
That I'm a fool for you
Fool for you
I am I am

Will you understand Will you understand

Are you gonna Are you gonna, gonna, gone

When will you understand
It's out of my hands

When you see what I am
And understand
That I'm a fool
