Can you feel a rumbling
It's building up like thunder inside you
Feel the earth is quaking
The air itself is shaking around you
Shadows on the moon
Someone's coming very soon you will meet him
The midnight rider comes for you

Now is the time
You know it's right
It is your destiny
And there'll be no more turning back
So take your place in history

When he ride, ride, rides across the sky
You know that something has got to change
When he ride, ride, rides out of the night
Don't be afraid
When he comes calling your name
When he ride, ride, rides into your life
You know that nothing will be the same
Don't try to hide
You can't escape the fate he brings to you
Midnight rider, midnight rider

You know what it means now
You've always had a dream you've been after
Still you can't believe it
Your dreams are all beginning to happen
Over the horizon
No need to be surprised when you see him
The midnight rider comes for you

Now is the time
You know it's right
It is your destiny
And there'll be no more turning back
So take your place in history

When he ride, ride, rides across the sky
You know that something has got to change
When he ride, ride, rides out of the night

Don't be afraid
When he comes calling your name
When he ride, ride.rides into your life
You know that nothing will be the same
Don't try to hide
You can't escape the fate he brings to you
Midnight rider, midnight rider (2x)
