They say it's gonna rain.
Blue skies gone grey
Can you tell me why
Do good things always have to end
It seems like yesterday but it only just begun
Laughing in the sun
I thought you'd be my life long friend
Love is cruel, cuts in two
Between pleasure and pain, between sunshine and rain
And between me and you

I'm alive. They say it's gonna rain
But I'll survive
And no one crying out that I'm in pain
I will love again

Am I the last to know
Oh see your love grow cold
Suddenly I feel a shadow hanging over me
Love is cruel, cuts in two...
