"An Emotion Away"

I had high expectations
It's something I could not compromise
And when I saw you I wasn't ready
It completely took my heart by surprise

Who and when I think of the time I met you
The situation looked harmless
It wasn't long before I got confused enough
And soon I realized that your

Love is just an emotion away
I know it's gonna get to you
Love will be only a moment away
A moment away, you know it's true

Lately the way I'm feeling
It's something I could never have planned
I knew that one day I'd find a love thing
Now I'll never stop believing in chance

I put my heart on a shelf forever
I never thought I would find you
I didn't know any better, baby
But then I realized that your

Love is just an emotion away
I know it's gonna get to you
Love will be only a moment away
A moment away, you know it's true

Love is crazy, love, love is crazy
And soon you're gonna get some
