"Real World"

We play the game with determination
We don't give a damn 'bout our reputation, baby It's not a game, it's a revelation, step inside the real world
The real world, yeah, yeah, yeah, the real world, yeah

It's been every day now and it just won't go away now, no
Life is so intense now, not much common sense now, yeah
And late in the night I turn out my light, yeah
A song in my head and it says, "Step inside the real

We play the game with determination
We don't give a damn 'bout our reputation, baby
It's not a game, it's a revelation
Just another day in the real world, yeah, the real world

I can make decisions with no one else believin' me I just look inside me 'cause I've got my own voice to guide me
It came in a dream, a light so extreme, yeah
A voice in my head and it says, "Step inside the real

We play the game with determination
We don't give a damn 'bout our reputation, baby
It's not a game, it's a revelation
Just another day in the real world, yeah, the real world

You gotta step inside the real world, step inside the
real world
I woke from the dream, I know what it means A voice in my head and it says, "You're here inside the real world"

We play the game with determination
We don't give a damn 'bout our reputation, baby
It's not a game, it's a revelation
Just another day in the real world, yeah, the real world

We play the game with determination
We don't give a damn 'bout our reputation, baby
It's not a game, it's a revelation
Just another day in the real world, yeah, the real world
