If you're down in Jacksonville
Stay away from Rainbow Grill
It's a juke joint, it's a dive
The people there ain't nothin' but jive
It's a haven for the hookers
It's a redneck paradise...

One night I was horny--horny as hell
So I ended up, down at the grill
A red headed woman, poured in her pants
Said she was ready--ready to dance
Lord that woman loved to boogie
Boogie Woogie all night long...

Turning green, got the shakes
I got that morning-after, sour-bellyache
Felling blue, half dead
Ooh--my head
I went to sleep with an angel
Woke up with a devil in my bed...

We played a gig down at Cooley's Ballroom
Back when we were breakin' in
We tried to play pretty for the people
But the people kept hollerin'--Boogie...

We like reggae and we dig country
Classical music's a gas
We play the blues in three-quarter time
But they don't wanna hear that jazz
They just want boogie...
