Oh, me of little faith, I can't make mountains move
But with each little step, I get closer to the truth
So I won't walk, I'll run, to the faithful One

CHORUS:

The faithful One who makes my soul believe
A firm and steady rock, where I lean
When I'm falling down, I'm holding on, to the faithful
One

When the brightest day I swallowed by night
I'll keep moving in faith cause I can't by sight
With the rise of the sun, comes the faithful One

BRIDGE:

As sure as the seasons change, You stay the same
As sure as things fall away, You will remain 'cause You say

CHORUS

To the faithful One who makes my soul believe
A firm and steady rock where I lean when I'm falling down
I'm holding on to the faithful One.
