Push him forward towards the moving train
In one second you stole his grace
And I'm waiting for what you have promised

Push him forward towards the moving train
And in one second

Guess
Assume from the outset
Regress
Into definitive confinement
Guess
Assume from the outset
Regress

His mind slips in this bitter cold
Your hand slips and you lose control

So I turn the key and press the pedal down
So I turn the key and press the pedal to the ground
So I turn the key and press the pedal to the ground
