I'm Tired

Do you remember back in the days?

So I'm leavin'

Stop pullin' on me and please stop screamin'

Dreamin'

Eventually maybe we can make it through a whole weekend

Without the anger steamin'

Strangle that demond

I'll call you in couple days

I've always been a fan of sunrays and subtle ways

Go find a fuck for your opions (and she still continues to grimface)

But baby I'd be livin' larger if it wasn't fot the cover charge

And I'd livin' good if more of them understood

Just before you lose it and your words get abusive just remember

I wouldn't be shit without my music

(Woman)

Chorus x2

She was as fresh as April

And when he took her away

She wore a smile

(Slug)

Quit tryin to play me to the left like your right

Always doin that when we fight but not tonight (see I've got a headache)

We can make the bed shake but nothin' is accomplished

Because after sex we're both unconscious (and she's still persistent)

Girl listen, there is no intrest in sex best that we should finish this discussion in depth

You said that you're neglected (neglected)

And now you're threatenin'

To pack your bags and step (step)

To teach me a lesson (lesson)
Well if you're really lookin' at the front door
What you tryin' to front for?
With the hardcore seduction, but ain't even listen
Got it twisted contorted
Before you stop to notice (yo, thats my heart you're clutching bitch)
She continues to disrobe
She knows he'll shut the fuck up if she's exposed
As the clothes drop, so does the conversation
Again people buckle under the temptation (temptation)
And the love is always needed after fighting
Thank you, I love you, crazy exciting (goodnight)
Hiding the fact that as he lays he weeps
Never woke up because she stabbed him in his sleep
(sluggle)

(Chorus) Til End
