So I've waited, contemplated
And I felt so disappointed that I'd never find the one
And oh, thought time was wasted, so frustrated
But you know what?
(Everything has changed since I met you)

You gave me lovin'. so much carin' and I did you back
So I'm believin' that we're always on the right track
Because I love you and you love me
And it ain't no lie
(Time and time again with you, my baby)

Chorus

Finally love has come to me
And now I'm overwhelmed
With the tenderness between us
Makin' love and nothin's gonna stop us
(On and on and on and on, my baby)

Finally love has conquered me
And now I've overcome the loneliness
And I'm glad I didn't hesitate
I thought it was too late
But you're just worth the wait, my baby

(This time) I'm done with wishin'
(I've found) What I've been missin'
Now I have you in my life and I will always treat you right because
(Everything has changed since I met you)

I'll never find another love
A love this much is true
And nothing in this world can keep me far away from you
I'll give you everything, my heart and soul, even my life
(Time and time again for you, my baby)

Repeat Chorus

(This time) I'm never gonna let you go

(Seems like) I'm ever gonna love you so
(Feels right) To have you always in my life
(Time and time again...)

Finally love has come to me
And now I'm overwhelmed
With the tenderness between us
Makin' love and nothin's gonna stop us
(On and on and on and on, my baby)

Repeat Chorus

(This time... seems like... feels right... on and on and on and on, my baby)

(This time... (woh-oh-woh)... seems like... feels right...)

And you're just worth the wait... my baby...
