Sometimes
You can be in the wrong place, at the right time
Sometimes
You can fall for the right one, at the wrong time

Every look, has a notion
Every kiss, throws me emotion
Every smile shows a little devotion
I know that I've thrown it away
In just three words

Sometimes
I wish we were far away, in another town, in another place
Sometimes
I wish, just once, you'd reach for me and show your love

Every look, has me believing
Every kiss, has a meaning
Every time I think, I must be dreaming
I know that I've thrown it away
In just three words

Every look, has a notion
Every kiss, throws me emotion
Every smile shows a little devotion
I know that I've thrown it away

I know that I've thrown it away
In just three words
