And when I wake in the morning and,
You're not here
I, I start to search every moment and,
Taste the tears
Cause I 'm outta my head over you

And you look deep into my eyes and I feel the air that you breathe

Yours truly,
I'm counting the moments
Truly,
When I fall asleep
And I'm with you, and you, you are my dream
Yours truly

And every count of your heart beat now,
Lingers on
I, I want to dream every moment,
And, feel the sun
Cause I'm outta my head over you

I reach out and touch for your hand
And you feel the air that I breathe

Yours truly,
I'm counting the moments
Truly,
When I fall asleep
And I'm with you, and you, you are my dream
Yours truly
