C'mon drift away through fundamental boundaries
To find ourselves surrounding
The ones who've already gone and come back stronger

All is numb
I've been lost too long
My fate's been mistakenly chosen
All is numb
Yeah I've done you wrong
My fate's been mistakenly chosen

Here you'll stay
Where lies are spread wide open
And ties are not so strong
That place you'll never find me
I've already gone

All is numb
I've been lost too long
My fate's been mistakenly chosen
All is numb
Yeah I've done you wrong
My fate's been mistakenly chosen

Disconnecting our side, grow colder and colder
Disconnecting our lives, we've been colder and colder
Disconnecting our minds

All is numb
I've been lost too long
My fate's been mistakenly chosen
All is numb
Yeah I've done you wrong
My fate's been mistakenly chosen

C'mon Drift away, C'mon Drift away, C'mon Drift away,
Yeah I've done you wrong C'mon Drift Away, C'mon
Drift away, C'mon Drift away, yeah i've done you wrong
