My love you're adorable
Need you to believe all my pain's forgettable
As soon as you are near
I wish I could explain it all
But the truth is hard to say
That's the risk I've gotta take
Because the truth is here to stay

For love I would do a lot of things
For your heart I'm willing to play
Even though it's getting harder today
This is how I get through my day
I would do it all again
I would do it all again yeah

Because you're my heart
For you I'd play the game
Just for you I will
Just for you I will
Because you're my heart, my joy, my everything
Just for you I will
Just for you I will

(ad-lib)

Days got by like (?) playing in their sleep
When we're apart I dream of you
As far as the heart can see
It tears me apart to think of you waking up to leave
Every scene is a memory of when you're next to me

For love I would do a lot of things
For your heart I'm willing to play
Even though it's getting harder today
And the pain keeps growing every day
Still I'll do it all again
Still I'll do it all again

Because you're my heart
For you I'd play the game

Just for you I will
Just for you I will
Because you're my heart, my joy, my everything
Just for you I will

'Cos yeah, the thought of living without you
Imagining the world without you
If I lose you, I lose a part of me
And I would rather not breathe
So when I sing, I sound (?) you
I'm so glad I found you
I love you

Because you're my...
My heart wants to play the game
Just for you I will
Just for you I will, will yeah
Because you're my joy
My everything yeah
For you I will. Yeah, just for you
Ooh, just for you, Yeah, yes I will Ooh I will. Said I will, yeah yeah
Yes, I will. I'll do it all for you
Baby I will, yeah I will
I'll do a lot of things for you
Just for you I will
