all this time i felt so lost lost and needed help incomplete out of reach alone all by myself

it all becomes so clear when i see your face and its only when your near i feel im safe

so before we take this road before you change my mind and feel my heart with hope help me to beelieve this time ive been torn apart desperatly tryin to find my way back to my heart so i can love again
help me to love again

im so tired of holding on so tired of waiting i need to feel something real without it breaking

when you touch my hand
i know you understand
help me to beilieve this time
desperatly trying to find my way back to my heart
so i can love again

theres a fire within me but i dont know where to stop theres a light beginning theres a dark kind leaving theres a hope im feeling now uhhh yeeees

help me to believe this time ive been torn a apart
so i can love again
uhhh yeahhh
turn the page to love again
