Thought love was easy
Thought if you gave it you'll get it back
I must've been crazy
Crazy for me to believe in that

I heard all the stories,
how love will come round and knock you off your feet,
but nobody told me,
that love would take so much of my energy.

Why do I feel like I'm workin' on this 9 to 5?
Always tryanna keep the flame alive?
Always tryanna keep you satisfied
All the things that we do for love (the things we do)
The things we do for love (the things we do)
The things we do for love (the things we do)
The things we do for love (the things we do)
It never seems like it's enough

What does it take to not be the only one to sacrifice?
I can't do it on my own
When your sitting on your thrown
And I know that we all make mistakes
But I don't know how much I can take anymore
What is it for?

Why do I feel like I'm workin' on this 9 to 5?
Always tryanna keep the flame alive?
Always tryanna keep you satisfied (the things we do)
All the things that we do for love (the things we do)

The things we do for love (the things we do)
The things we do for love (the things we do)
The things we do for love (the things we do)
It never seems like it's enough

I accept all of the things that you're tell me baby
Even love you slight? all the times that you kept me waiting
I do it all for you
Why does love make us do what we do?

Why do I feel like I'm workin' on this 9 to 5?
Always tryinna keep the flame alive?
Always tryinna keep you satisfied
All the things that we do for love (the things we do)
The things we do for love (the things we do)
The things we do for love (the things we do)
The things we do for love (the things we do)
It never seems like it's enough

Why do I feel like I'm workin' on this 9 to 5?
Always tryinna keep the flame alive?
Always tryinna keep you satisfied
All the things that we do for love (the things we do)
The things we do for love (the things we do)
The things we do for love (the things we do)
The things we do for love (the things we do)
It never seems like it's enough

Never enough
The things we do for love
Hey yeah
