Watch out for the candy rapper

The boy can dance

And he's so sweet, yeah

He'll blow your composure

As he picks you right

Out of your seat

He's got you going in circles

Your head is spinning round and round

You'll start to feel his motion

When he takes you on down

[CHORUS]

Shout, break out, don't be insecure

Cause it's your chance to scream

Shout, break out, go dance with her

Cause she's a physical dream

Oh, yeah, shout, break out

From the way you were

Cause it's your chance to dream

(Come on) shout, freak out

Be good to her

Cause she's a human machine, oh, oh

Maybe I get too crazy
As my feet dance on a dime
Yeah, I need the music to take me
To a place in another time
I wanna be your lover
And feel it as we move tonight
No keeping it under cover
Can't stop until we see the light

[Repeat CHORUS]

Ooh, when I'm with you
I feel a little Heaven
You got that something
I wanna get in
We're two stars
That shine so bright
We'll dance better
Than we dance tonight
Shout, shout
Ohh

[Repeat CHORUS 2x to fade]
