Looks like I've fallen in love again
Kiss me, save me, be my closest friend
We've waited all year to have tonight
Don't hold back and I will make you mine

It started with a kiss and ended with I'll miss you, yes I do
So tell me what you want and I will wear that mask for you
We say we're being truthful but I can't get near you when I do
I just can't shake the image of my hands exploring you

Lie down, let me in
I will give you everything
I wear my heart on my sleeve
Touch me and I won't let you go
Make me what you need
You know what you want with me
I wear my heart on my sleeve

For now you're far away but close enough to miss you, and I do
For all the girls in all the world, I've got my eye on you
I'm ready for the day when I will get over you, I will do
But first just let me give myself entirely to you

And I'm not gonna lose you
I will fly around the world
If I have to show you
What you mean to me
