Goodbye Planet Earth - That's All Your Worth.
I Got Something To Tell Ya - Right On.
We Were Rolling Across The Country,
When The Driver Broke Down And He Cried,
He Said, Please Boss, A Little Rest A While.
Before, Before Your Engine Dies.
We Were Hi-Jacked, Lumbered, Dobo.
Criss-Crossed, Cucumbered.
We Were Keeping It Together On Speed.
When A Lady In Red,
Stuck A Dollar Note Up My Head.
She Said, Boys, I Got The Snow That You Need .
I Looked And Followed The Track,
Right Up To The Pair Of Legs.
We Didn't Have Any Sinus' To Freeze.
Tenderfoot No Longer,
Lurchin' Sky, Mandela, I Was Searching.
Planet Earth Just Blew Away In The Breeze.
Just Keep Your Note On The Tracks,
Ain't No Use Coming Back.
Keep Your Nose On The Tracks.
Planet Earth Just Blew Away In The Breeze.
Keep Your Nose On The Track,
Ain't No Use Looking Back.
Keep Your Note On The Track.
Just Keep Your Note On The Tracks,
Ain't No Use Looking Back.
Keep Your Nose On The Tracks.
Keep Your Nose On The Track,
Ain't No Use Looking Back,
Keep Your Note On The Track.
Keep Your Nose On The Track,
Ain't No Use Looking Back,
Keep Your Note On The Track, Track, Track, Track,
Track.
Keep Your Nose On The Tracks,
Ain't No Use Looking Back.
Keep Your Nose On The Tracks,
Goodbye Planet Earth...
