"you're all I need"
I used to say
You're barely here
I'm on my way
More days without
Than days with you
Today I doubt
My love for you

I hope we learn someday
I doubt you'll ever change

In five years I won't know you

We've grown apart
Our words are cold
My bitter heart
Don't love your soul
Don't trust the things
You say or do
I trust in doubt
I doubt you're true

I hope we learn someday
I doubt you'll ever change

In five years I won't know you
