Look at those eyes pretty as can be,
When everyone walks by they're filled with jealousy.
You're beautiful you know and perfect for me,
I said I'd play this one real slow so you could sing it with me.

And it goes please,
Kiss me so I know it's real.

Your laugh seems to amaze me, so I will try
To make sure it stay with me, I promise it will never die.
You move in slow motion when you sing
I said I'd give you the ocean if you could help me sing
one thing.

And it goes please,
Say it might last 'tween you and me.

You wrap your arms around, around my waist,
This is when I know I've found my saving grace.

You just had to leave, no matter how much I plea
Even though I'm in greif could you sing one last time with me.

And it goes please,
Make it all end soon.

Time seems to go so slow when you're not here,
They say just go with the flow but I wish I had you here

And it goes,
All I need is closure...
