masquerade she tastes like chardonnay now the party's over she says boy come over misbehave and don't stop teasing me while you're analyzing i will be fantasizing sweet stranger the danger i should have known she's po po poison, i said no whoa she is a red, red, red, red light warning sign

whoa
she is a red, red, red, red light warning sign and now would someone tell me how we started out with hello, to lipstick from the pillow cigarette to smoke away regrets my memory is fuzzy she wasn't really was she she is fiction addiction

i should have known
she is po po poison i said no whoa
she is a red, red, red, red light warning sign
whoa

anytime every time she gets me out of line warning sign gotta go

i said no whoa
she is a red, red, red, red light warning sign no whoa
she is a red, red, red, red light warning sign
