It's been 9 months and 20 days
I fell in love what can I say your parents don't understand, let me be your only man
All your friends they hate my guts
But I don't care, I don't give a fuck
They can't stop me from seeing you, they can't stop me from loving you

And I hope I hope I hope you feel the same
Cause I know I know I know this won't go away

I have a question to ask you, and a present to give you
I have so much love for you, I'll never ever hurt you So have a seat and close your eyes, let your heart beat deep inside
Put your lips against mine, and let me ask you this one time

Will you be my valentine, will you tell me you'll be mine?
Will you be my valentine, will you love me all the time?

It's been one day since I've seen your face
I don't know it feels like days
You take my pain away, you make me feel okay

And I hope I hope I hope you feel the same
Cause I know I know I know this won't go away.

I know I promised but I've got to admit,
I've gotta be honest, I got no gift,
I didn't have money so I made you a card,
I hope you still love me because it came from the heart,
And I took my time and wrote this song,
Cause girl you know we both belong
Maybe next year I won't be cheap I'll get you something that you will keep.

Will you be my valentine, will you tell me you'll be
mine?

Will you be my valentine, will you love me all the time?
Will you be my valentine, will you tell me you'll be
mine?
Will you be my valentine, will you love me all the time?

One more time...
