I wonder why
We are the way we are
And so I wonder why
We are the way we are
And why
We only love each other from afar

This is how we are fading
This is how we are fading
Time
Time

You spend your days watching the door
Yeah you spend your whole life waiting
But you don't know what for
You have everything you need right here
Still you want more

Ow this how we are fading
This is how we are fading
Time
Time

Well I didn't come here
Looking for a soul
And I'm tired of watching dust collecting all above
I'm a spirit trying to be human
I'm just a spirit trying to be human

But I'm thinking
This is how we are fading
Whis is how we are fading
Time
Time

You hold on to yourself
You're afraid that you might get left behind
And so you hide your eyes
You're afraid that the lie will make you blind
But it's time
It's time to shine
Yes it's time to believe in what you know

Time to believe in what you know
Time to believe in what you know
And you don't need strength te be strong
Time to believe in what you know
No you don't need strength te be strong
Time to believe in what you know
Time to believe in what you know
Time to believe in what you know
Time to believe in what you know
Time to believe the far you go
