I said, "cover me if there is a fire,
'Cause I want you to burn first"
She screamed at me, "I want to be desired"
I said easy girl, "I know it hurts"

Let's all give thanks That I am a liar,
'Cause I've got a feeling I just might get worse
Now there's nothing wrong with you
I'm just tired
And im in a mood for a brand new curse

You burn first,
You burn first,
You burn first,
You burn first

Cover me if there is a fire,
'Cause I want you to burn first
She screamed at me "I want to be desired"
I said easy girl, "I know it hurts"

Let's all give thanks That I am a liar
'Cause I've got a feeling I just might get worse
Now there's nothing wrong with you
I just grow tired
And im in the mood for a brand new curse
