Alright

This is from our hearts
So suddenly a super chart
To make some mistakes

We'll make some mistakes
Well, it's a long time coming
When you're giving it everything

Alright

This is from our hearts
So suddenly a super chart
To make some mistakes

We'll make some mistakes
Well, it's a long time coming
When you're giving it everything

Alright

This is from our hearts
And if you reach for the sun
You'll find that my conscience
Just can't put out

Alright

This is from our hearts
(From our hearts)
And it's always gonna be a part
Well, this crowd don't understand

Well, I feel the same, I won't ever change
Not a jaded hair up on my head

Are you pretending?
(That you care)
Are you even listening?
Are you pretending?
(That you understand)

Are you even?

Straight to the left

Straight to the right
'Cause my heart
My heart is strong
We ride to fight

Straight to the left
Straight to the right
'Cause my heart
My heart is strong
And we ride to fight

Straight to the left
Straight to the right
'Cause my heart
My heart is strong
We ride to fight

Straight to the left
Straight to the right
'Cause my heart
My heart is strong
And we ride to fight

Are you pretending?
(That you care)
Are you even listening?

Are you pretending?
(That you understand)
Are you even listening?
Are you pretending?

I know, I know

Are you even listening?
Are you pretending?
That your heart's in the right place

Are you pretending?
Are you even listening?
Are you pretending?
Are you even

There's no need to waste my time
Spending your life
Jumping from sinking ship to sinking ship
I think I'd rather drown, I know I'd rather drown

And I feel the same, I won't ever change
Not a jaded hair up on my head
