They are the nameless victims of a generation lost
Searching for somewhere to exist
Held captive by our mistakes
Weak and unable to resist.

Resentful minds have ruled too long
Young and old, weak and strong.

We will drag our hindsight
Through the twilight of this era
To where our freedom reigns and the old thought is laid to dust
Let the philistines wallow in their decadence
While the enlightened minds usher in the dawning of a new.

We are heading for the sun, we are
We are heading for the sun, we are
We are heading for the sun, we are
We are heading for the sun

Time will come when we are all condemned
For all the damage we have done
Held accountable for all
Battles lost, battles won

We are heading for the sun, we are
We are heading for the sun, we are
We are heading for the sun, we are
We are heading for the sun

And the earth will coil each year getting closer to its end
What will our lesson be, when we are all ablaze?
That our benevolence was the start of our decay
Or that we did not learn from the mistakes of the past?

We are heading for the sun, we are
We are heading for the sun, we are
We are heading for the sun, we are
We are heading for the sun
