Look Forward
Look forward
All you highway livers
It's time to leave the landlord
Swinging from the highest tree
We don't live, we flow
To every corner of the earth
Fuck your fences, fuck your borders
This tribe is taking back the map.

I'm Battened Down
With the days of young
We'll make home in the mountains with the ones we love
I'm battened down
With the days of young
Until the day I die
I'll always curse the sun

Look forward
Look forward
All you displaced boys and girls
We travel where we please
No mark for the stationary
Every skyline beats in my chest
Somewhere between love and sadness
Desire for something new Leads us to everywhere.

After all that we've been through
VIVA THE WAYFARER YOUTH!
Just give us something new
VIVA THE WAYFARER YOUTH!

I'm Battened Down
With the days of young
We'll make home in the mountains with the ones we
love
I'm battened down
With the days of young
Until the day I die

I'll always curse the sun

N.

Say N. O.

N. O. M.

Say N. O. M. A. D. S.

NOMADS!

Say N. O.

N. O. M.

Say N. O. M. A. D. S.

NOMADS!

I'm Battened Down

With the days of young

We'll make home in the mountains with the ones we
love

I'm battened down

With the days of young

Until the day I die

I'll always curse the sun

WE DON'T JUST LIVE

My Heart is where the sea lights touch the stars

WE DON'T JUST LIVE

With fond eyes we look to the horizon

WE DON'T JUST LIVE

My heart is where the sea lights touch the stars

WE DON'T JUST LIVE

With fond eyes we look to the horizon.
