Once upon a time there was a damsel
Where deep in the hood stood a castle
She often sit on a stoop whatch in the ghetto youth
Do the things they do
She dreamed of a day her knight would come through
With his shining amour 22's
To take her far away from the heartache and the pain
To a world she never knew

It's the same old story
Just another lifetime
Girl wants to be rescued
From all the hard times
You can be Prince Charming
I'll be Cinderella
Don't want a fairytale
Just give me happy after

For days on end she tries to pretend
Like with her there is nothing wrong
But although she tries
You can see the tracks from the tears that she cries
All night long
And she constantly wishes for the house and the picket fence and a big back yard and she hopes one day that her prince will take her away
to a life that aint so hard

It's the same old story
Just another lifetime
Girl wants to be rescued
From all the hard times
You can be Prince Charming
I'll be Cinderella
Don't want a fairytale
Just give me happy after

If I through down my hair like Rapunzel
Would you come up and save me

And if I'm in a deep sleep like the beauty
Would u kiss me to wake me
And if my step mother wont let me out of the house
Would you rescue me would you rescue me please

It's the same old story
Just another lifetime
Girl wants to be rescued
From all the hard times
You can be Prince Charming
I'll be Cinderella
Don't want a fairytale

Happily after give me after (repeat)
