You should have ran for days
You embrace you betray
I am sick to say, you're a sad cliché
But when you ran you tripped and fell
On a path that led you straight to hell
This is the salt in your wounds
This is my I told you so

If you knew, what I know
Would you move, like you do
With malicious discontent you went about
Hell bent to destroy but did you have a reason why

Here's to lowering caskets of old friends,
Through choice and consequence we'll birth a new day
With the death of an old and (Start over, start over) Here's to burying hatchets with those Who you'd never call your friends
We'll birth a new day with the death of an old and (Start over, start over)

Can you breathe in, reach in, and let it out?
The evil inside, that's eating you out, tonight
With every venomous move, I will suck you up and spit you
Get out of my life, get out of my sight

Here's to lowering caskets of old friends,
Through choice and consequence we'll birth a new day
With the death of an old and (Start over, start over)
Here's to burying hatchets in those
Who you'd never call your friends
We'll birth a new day with the death of an old and (Start over, start over)

You let yourself get carried away
Don't act like you're ashamed
You let yourself get carried away
Bow your head now accept the blame
You let yourself get carried away
Bury this with you a waste

Now it's time to see, what you don't mean to me
Now it's time to see, what you don't mean to me
Now it's time to see, what you don't mean to me

Here's to lowering caskets of old friends,
Through choice and consequence we'll birth a new day
With the death of an old and (Start over, start over)
Here's to burying hatchets in those
Who you'd never call your friends
We'll birth a new day with the death of an old and
