Girl I'm gonna change
Girl I'm gonna change

There's nothing I can say to prove to you
How I feel, so I put it in a song
Girl I know I made you cry a time or two
? I admit I was wrong
I never though telling a lie
Was all (?), you walking out my life
Now I know how the saying goes
You don't miss a good thing until it's gone

(Chorus)

Cause if I could take it all back I would Fix all the bad and make it all good
I'll do anything just to make it right
Can't afford for you to say goodbye
So many promises I made
I was never gon hurt you again
I only got myself to blame
So please give me another chance

Girl I'm gonna change
(Any day, any day, any day, any day)
(Any day, any day, any day, any day)
Girl I'm gonna change
(Any day, any day, any day, any day)

Girl I know that I said these line before
But this time I'm being for real
When I tell you I love ya
There is no other
And I'll never hurt you again
And if I die before I wake
And love takes all the breath away

Baby all I wanna say
This was my biggest mistake

(Chorus)

Girl I'm gonna change

(Any day, any day, any day, any day)
(Any day, any day, any day, any day)
Girl I'm gonna change
(Any day, any day, any day, any day)
Girl I'm gonna change

Promise it won't be forever
Give me another chance
Girl I'm gonna change
I'm gonna get myself together
Cause I'm a better man
Girl I'm gonna change
I'm gonna fix all my wrongs and make em right
Girl I'm gonna change
Everything that I've done girl I apologize

So many promises I made
I was never gon hurt you again
I only got myself to blame
So please give me another chance

Girl I'm gonna change
(Any day, any day, any day, any day)
(Any day, any day, any day, any day)
Girl I'm gonna change
(Any day, any day, any day, any day)
